

General policy on use of recorded lines for SFE

Portfolio managers shall exclusively use recorded phone lines to:

- Communicate with clients
- Communicate with any third party (including SEAS) in relation to an order or transaction on behalf of a client

Every portfolio manager is equipped with a dedicated fixed phone line which complies with the recording requirement. It is prohibited to use mobile phones or any other non recorded medium in relation to client dealings.